

Together we'll continue for years to come!

After twenty-five years of slicing and dicing, mincing and mixing, kneading and noshing, Cooking with Kids is STILL rolling—even under some pretty unusual circumstances.

What is Cooking with Kids doing this year?

We've been getting this question a lot! How do you make a hands-on program work in the virtual world? How are 5,000 kids actually going to cook? How are you going to celebrate 25 years and fundraise for the future?

Keep scrolling to find out. . .

Fruit and vegetable scavenger hunt

Look around your kitchen, pantry, or refrigerator. Do you see any fruits or vegetables? (They might be in a can or even frozen!) Can you bring one to show to the class? If you didn't find one, get a piece of paper and draw your favorite one to show the class.

You have 3 minutes. Go!
