Legacy Gifts

Legacy gifts (also known as planned gifts) allow you to have a direct and lasting impact for generations to come. When you plan a legacy gift to Cooking with Kids in your long-term estate or financial plans, you truly are creating a healthy future for Northern New Mexico. Legacy Giving comes in many forms. We've listed a few of the more common options below. You'll need this info about Cooking with Kids, too:

Bequests

A donor may name Cooking with Kids as a beneficiary of his or her will; either with a designated amount, a percentage, or as a recipient of funds after other beneficiaries have received their bequests.

Beneficiary Designations

Not everyone wants to commit to making a gift in their wills or estates. Some prefer the increased flexibility that a beneficiary designation provides by using:

- IRAs and retirement plans
- Life insurance policies
- Commercial annuities

How to name Cooking with Kids as a beneficiary:

(It only takes three simple steps)

1. Contact your retirement plan administrator, insurance company, bank or financial institution for a change-of-beneficiary form.
2. Decide what percentage you would like us to receive and name us, along with the percentage you chose, on the beneficiary form.
3. Return the completed form to your plan administrator, insurance company, bank or financial institution.

Sample Bequest Language: "I, (name), of (city, state, zip), give, devise and bequeath to Cooking with Kids, Inc., a nonprofit organization located in Santa Fe, NM, (specific dollar amount or percentage of the estate or description of property), for its general use and purpose."
